Day-by-day itinerary

DAY 1

WELCOMING AND DEBRIEF WITH YOUR GUIDE

Welcome from 5.00 pm at the chalet in Prats Hauts. In the evening, there will be a welcome drink to introduce you to your stay, followed by dinner. For those arriving by train, a free shuttle bus will pick you up at Montdauphin - Guillestre station at 6.30pm, subject to booking at the time of registration.

DAY 2

VALPRÉVEYRE - LE VALLON D'URINE

On this first day, heading for the bottom of the Guil valley, we'll be immersed in the 'wild Queyras'. Starting from the little hamlet of Le Roux, we'll head up this valley dominated by the bric Bouchet... a magical atmosphere along an enchanting torrent where it's not unusual to come across roe deer and chamois in search of unfrozen water. Return to Le Roux via the hamlets of Pra Roubaud, flanked by south-facing hillsides.

5.5 hour walk / Elevation: +/- 550m

DAY 3

CHALET DE CLAPEYTO - COL DE LA ROUSSE

The Clapeyto mountain pasture, nestling at the foot of the Col de l'Izoard, is an enchanting place where calm reigns amidst these small mountain chalets. In this peaceful atmosphere, progress through these small hamlets steeped in history. Depending on the conditions, return via the Col de la Rousse, where we may come across some animals.

Possibility of visiting the craftsmen's house on the way.

4.5 hour walk / Elevation : +/- 650m

DAY 4

LES CRÊTES DE GLAISSETTES - LE LAC DE ROUE

From the small pastoral hamlet of Souliers, climb up the Col Tronchet valley, nestling at the foot of the imposing Pic de Rochebrune. From the col, there is a magnificent panorama over the Izoard valley and the Font Sancte massif. Over a wide ridge, you descend to the sun-facing Lac de Roue (frozen in winter)... a real treat for lovers of wide open spaces! Return to Souliers. In the evening, a jacuzzi, hammam and sauna will keep you warm after a wonderful day.

5.5 hour walk / Elevation : +/- 650m

DAY 5FONTOUSE COL

Departing from Arvieux, this small, intimate valley is a delight for lovers of unspoilt countryside... The route, which starts out a little steep in the mélézin, gradually softens and widens out to offer fine powder snow all the way up to the pass, where you'll be treated to a magnificent panorama. In this wild valley, it's not unusual to come across a mouflon or another chamois numbed by the rigours of winter.

5.5 hour walk / Elevation : +/- 750m

DAY 6MINI RAID AT THE REFUGE DE LA BLANCHE

Once the rooms have been vacated, departure for a 2-day trek in the high mountains, in complete safety, in a comfortable refuge at the foot of the Italian border. From Aigue Agnel, an easy climb up the valley to the high peaks bordering Italy. A day in the middle of wide open spaces, heading for a mountain refuge tucked away at the foot of the Tête des Toillies. Away from it all, on this unique day, the place will enchant you.

The Col du Longet, at an altitude of over 2700 m, is the crossing point between the Aigue Blanche and the Aigue Agnel, offering a magnificent panorama of these two valleys on the border with Italy. Descend to the refuge for a warm night's sleep! Overnight at the Refuge de la Blanche, without luggage transport.

6.5 hour walk / Elevation : +800m; - 400m

DAY 7SAINT-VÉРАН

Early departure from this refuge 'at the end of the world' for the emblematic Queyras village of Saint-Véran.

An easy descent into this wide, sunny valley, where it's not unusual to come across a herd of chamois above the famous 'copper mine'.

We'll take time to pass through this authentic village, the highest in Europe, before enjoying a final picnic in this idyllic setting.

At the end of your picnic, a logistician will bring your luggage to Saint-Véran so that you can catch the 1pm shuttle to Montdauphin-Guillestre station for those returning by train. If you have come by car, we will take you back to Prats-Hauts.

The guide and the agency can decide at any time to modify or interrupt the circuit or certain stages for reasons of safety or availability, in particular for the night in a refuge.

ACCOMMODATION

Typical south-facing mountain chalets in a small hamlet bordering a magnificent larch forest in the heart of the Queyras Natural Park. Clinging to the sunny slopes of Prats-Hauts, the chalet has comfortable rooms sleeping 1, 2, 3 or 4. A cosy lounge with bar, music and board games will help you relax. In the rustic dining room, a large fireplace brings traditional and hearty meals to life. There are also several lounges and a library, south-facing terraces and free parking nearby.

- Accommodation in shared rooms: these are cosy, non-mixed rooms with en-suite facilities, to be shared by 3 or 4 people.
- Accommodation in 'standard' double rooms: these are cosy rooms with en-suite facilities, located in the historic chalet. Supplement for the stay of €70 per person.
- Accommodation in a 'comfort' room for two: these are spacious, tastefully decorated rooms with en-suite facilities in the new chalet. Supplement for the stay of €130 per person.
- Single room: a room with a single bed and en-suite facilities. Extra charge of €160 per person.

Wellness area :

On site, free SPA available 2 days a week, swimming costume compulsory for access to the whirlpool, hammam and sauna.

Massage :

Various types of massage available (to be booked and paid for on site): Californian, Swedish, Lomi -Lomi and also foot reflexology sessions.

On night 6, you will sleep at the Refuge de la Blanche, without bringing your own luggage: you will need a sheet and towel for this night.

If the Chalet La Vie Sauvage is not available, equivalent accommodation may be offered, in which case the price may be adjusted.

MEALS

Meal prepared daily by 'the patrons', using local produce: Queyras cheese, homemade jams and pastries, homemade bread made with organic flour from the family farm, honey produced on the farm, apple juice made at the chalet with apples from the family orchard, etc.

Full breakfast, bread, Queyras cheese, fresh cheese from the Hautes Alpes, fruit salad, homemade jam and honey, fruit juice made at the chalet, etc.

Picnic with a different salad each day, mountain charcuterie, Queyras cheese, home-made pastries, fruit, chocolate, cereal bars, etc.

If you have a special diet (gluten-free, lactose-free, etc.) or are vegetarian, our small facilities are unable to offer personalised menus for every diet. We will do our best to adapt our menus within the limits of our capacity (particularly in terms of supplies). However, you will need to provide your own substitutes adapted to your needs, in particular bread, snacks and special milks, especially for picnics! Depending on the requirements of your diet, a supplement may be applied (from €3 to €5 per meal).
