From Nice to Haute Provence, from olive trees to chestnut trees, the gentle rhythm of the train and hiking transports you on a timeless adventure. In 1911, the railway link between Nice and Digne became a reality after half a century of planning! The line experienced prosperity, the First World War, the demographic decline of the mountains... and many episodes that threatened to close it down... Fortunately, its defenders created the Groupe d'Etude pour les Chemins de fer de Provence (GECF). Since 1980, this association of volunteers has been operating the Train des Pignes à Vapeur on the line, which has now been modernised and is also operated by the Sud - Provence Alpes Côte d'Azur Region.

This gentle journey takes you from Entrevaux, an exceptional medieval town, to Saint-André-les-Alpes, a commune in the Verdon Regional Natural Park, via the stunning natural site of the Grès d'Annot. Six hikes starting from villages with varied charms and atmospheres.

You will love

- The legendary Pignes railway line (Chemin de fer de Provence) and its medieval villages
- The famous sandstones of Annot
- Hiking in the upper Verdon
- The possibility of travelling almost all year round
- Holidays without the car, accessible from Digne or Nice

Day-by-day itinerary

DAY 1

Departure at 8 a.m. or 12:20 p.m. from Nice CFP station

ENTREVAUX - SA CITADELLE - LES LACS

The train takes you from the French Riviera to the Var Valley. The medieval village of Entrevaux is the first stop on the journey, and the afternoon will be spent on an initial hike to explore the heights of the town. Overnight stay in a hotel in Entrevaux.

3 hour walk / Elevation : +650m ; -450m / 9km

DAY 2

LES GRES D'ANNOT

New train journey to Annot! The sandstone cliffs overlooking the village are home to sculptures and legends that have been created over the centuries. It is also a fantastic playground for climbers from all over France. Check in at your hotel in Annot for two nights.

4 hour walk / Elevation : +750m ; -750m / 10km

DAY 3

MEAILLES - CRÊTE DU COUGNAS

The small Méailles plateau has many gems to discover during this hike: its railway station, its hilltop village, its cliffs, its "roubines", its caves and its ridges. But be careful: on the return journey, the train only stops on request, so you'll have to wave your arms vigorously to avoid being left behind on the platform! Second night in Annot.

6.5 hour walk / Elevation : +950m ; -950m / 15km

DAY 4

PEYRESQ - COLLE SAINT MICHEL

This time, the train stops in the middle of the forest, with no roads or buildings, just a small shelter. Departure for the village of Peyresq and its turbulent history through the upper Vaïre valley. The most resilient will continue on to Plan du Rieu before finishing at La Colle, a historic crossing point between the Verdon and Var regions. Overnight stay in a hostel in La Colle Saint Michel without luggage.

4.5 hour walk / Elevation : +950m ; -550m / 10km

2.5 hours of additional walking and 550m additional elevation by le plan du Rieu

DAY 5*PUY DE RENT - SAINT ANDRE LES ALPES

The day begins on a wide ridge and panoramic summit. The view stretches from the surrounding Mercantour mountains to the sea. A long descent takes you to the train that will take you back to St André. At the end of the afternoon, there is the option of a short hike above Lake Castillon. Accommodation for 2 nights in a hotel.

5 hour walk / Elevation : +750m ; -1200m / 14km

DAY 6*COURCHONS - CRÊTE DU LOUP

After passing through numerous villages during the week that narrowly escaped extinction, here is one that has definitely fallen into ruin. It is easy to imagine how hard life must have been up here, and a few elements remind us of this: the church, the cemetery, the oven, the wash house... Some will follow the canal back to its source and then on to the Crête du Loup, while the most resilient will go as far as the summit of the Aup and its landscape of isolated steppes. Last night in St André.

5.5 hour walk / Elevation : +750m ; -750m / 18km

1.5 hours of additional walking and 350m additional elevation to the Aup summit.

DAY 7*TRAIN DES PIGNES / PINE CONE TRAIN

The last day is devoted to the return journey, allowing you to enjoy the entire line from Saint André to Nice.

2.30 hour of train

End of the tour during the day in Nice

The programme has been drawn up on the basis of the latest information available at the time of writing; imponderables are always possible and situations beyond our control may alter its course.
