Located at the southern end of the Hautes-Alpes department, the Buëch countries already smell of Haute Provence! This little-known territory offers multiple hiking opportunities between 600 m and more than 2000 m of altitude, passing from alpine pastures where the edelweiss grows to the hills lined with fragrant lavender. Arboriculture with its apple plantations and sheep breeding make Buëch a very preserved region where agriculture remains the main activity. The diversity of landscapes and reliefs make it a hiking area that can be enjoyed from April.

You will love

- Landscape diversity day after day
- The sunny climate of the southern extremity of the Hautes Alpes department
- The discovery of a territory between high mountains and Provence
- Its lavender fields and green valleys
- A preserved territory where agriculture reigns

Day-by-day itinerary

DAY 1

SERRES - PAS DE LA LOUVE - SAVOURNON

From Serres (free parking in the village square), leave your luggage at the Tourist Office and start your journey in the heart of the Baronnies Regional Nature Park. This first stage takes you to one of the most spectacular panoramas of Serres, the Dévoluy, the Monges and the entire Buëch valley as far as Sisteron. The Pas de la Louve will take you over the Arambre massif to reach the vast agricultural plain of Savournon, home of the famous lamb that is the pride of the Southern Alps. Overnight in Savournon in an auberge.

5 hrs walk / Altitude: +650 m; -600 m

DAY 2

SAVOURNON - GORGES DU RIOU - LARAGNE

Depart via the departmental road for the Jubéo state forest. In the heart of this coniferous forest, you can enjoy the peaceful calm against the backdrop of one of the most beautiful perched synclines in the valley. Pass close to the Jubéo forest house and then descend into the Riou gorges... Exceptional surroundings on this path carved out by the foresters. Pass through the typical village of St Genis before enjoying a swim at the lake of the same name. Continue on to Laragne Montéglin via the historic site of Vieil Eyuigians. Overnight in Laragne in hotel.

5 hrs walk / Altitude: +450 m; -600 m

DAY 3

LARAGNE - CHÂTEAUNEUF DE CHABRE - GORGES DE LA MÉOUGE - BARRET

From Laragne, transfer to Châteauneuf de Chabre. Leaving the small village of Châteauneuf, you reach Antonave, the mouth of the Gorges de la Méouge. The Gorges de la Méouge link the Drôme provençale with the Hautes-Alpes. The turquoise river cascades down, forming whirlpools, pools and polished pebble beaches at the bottom of the deep, green gorges, bathed in warmth and light. Classified as a biological reserve, the Gorges de la Méouge are one of the wonders of the Hautes Alpes. The itinerary, all on a balcony, takes you to the little village of Barret sur Méouge, where a stopover in front of its lively square will be a pure delight. Overnight in an inn in Barret sur Méouge.

5h walk / Altitude: +600 m ; -500 m

DAY 4BARRET - CRÊTES DE CHABRE - LES BEGÜES

On this day, a beautiful forest walk awaits you. The Montagne de Chabre is a key feature of the Buëch valley landscape, with its long, rocky ridge forming a natural barrier between the Méouge valley to the south and the Céans valley to the north.

From the Col de la Crousette up to the ridge, a breathtaking view awaits you! It's also a remarkable natural site, classified as a natural zone of ecological, faunistic and floristic interest (ZNIEFF) in the heart of a national forest managed by the ONF.

Stop off at the Hôtel des Bégues for a refreshing break by the pool!

5h30 walk / Difference in altitude: +680 m ; -580 m

DAY 5LES BEGÜES - ST CYRICE - TRESCLÉOUX

After a short morning transfer (optional, it saves you an hour and a half's walk), you'll reach the other side of the Céans valley.

Departing from the abandoned hamlet of Saint Cyrice, you set off for a day overlooking the famous village of Orpierre and its climbing cliffs, for which this typical Baronnies village is renowned. The end of this largely ridged stage offers superb, unobstructed views over the Buëch valley.

Overnight in Trescléoux in a B&B.

5-hour walk / Altitude: +750 m; -850 m

DAY 6TRESCLÉOUX - ROCHER DE BEAUMONT - SERRES

A great day out on one of the valley's major promontories: the Rocher de Beaumont. It's one of the panoramas that covers most of the Dévoluy, the Ventoux and the Monges, all the way to Sisteron! You'll return to Serres, your starting point, from the west. Your luggage will be delivered back to you at the Tourist Office.

5-hour walk / Altitude: +900 m; -900 m
