

DISCOVER WILD QUEYRAS SNOWSHOEING

Discover the peaceful Queyrasian valleys!

Departing from Prat Hauts, enjoy a day in the wild landscapes of Queyras, snowshoeing! The snowshoe is perfect to discover local nature and built heritage of the Alps. At noon, your guide will find you unusual location to share a picnic in bright sunlight, around a campfire or in a mountain hut to keep you warm. Slowly and one by one, each valley will reveal itself and if we're lucky some chamois or some deers will appear in the immaculate whiteness. Back in the chalet, you'll enjoy the reading salon, screenings and spa. When it comes to eat, food is generous, everything is prepared from local farm products. This a cosy journey in nature, with powder snow for everyone!

The route

Day 1

WELCOMING AND DEBRIEF WITH YOUR GUIDE

Welcome from 4 p.m. at the chalet La Vie Sauvage in Prats Hauts. In the evening, during the welcome drink, debrief with your guide and then dinner. For those arriving by train, a free shuttle, on reservation, will pick you up at 6.30pm at Montdauphin - Guillestre station.

Day 2

VALPRÉVEYRE - LE VALLON D'URINE

To the bottom of the Guil valley for a first day into the "wild Queyras". Departing from the small hamlet of Roux, climbing up the valley dominated by the bric Bouchet ... enchanting atmosphere along a torrent where you should come across deer and chamois, looking for unfrozen water. Return to Roux through the hamlets of Pra Roubaud, flanked on the southern slopes.

5.5 hour walk / Elevation : + 550m ; - 550m

Day 3

CHALET DE CLAPEYTO - COL DE LA ROUSSE

The Clapeyto pasture, nestled at the foot of the Izoard pass, is an enchanting place where calm reigns in the middle of these small mountain chalets. In this peaceful atmosphere, progression through the small hamlets full of history. Depending on the conditions, return via the Col de la Rousse, where we should come across animals. Possibility to visit the craftsmen's house before returning to the chalet.

4.5 hour walk / Elevation : +/- 450m

Day 4

LES CRÊTES DE GLAISSETTES - LE LAC DE ROUE

Departing from the small pastoral hamlet of Souliers, ascend through the valley of Col Tronchet, nestled at the foot of the peak of Rochebrune. From the pass, a magnificent panorama opens up over the Izoard valley as well as the Font Sancte massif. On a wide ridge, descent facing the sun to Lac de Roue (frozen in winter). Return to Souliers. In the evening, Jacuzzi, hammam and sauna to continue this beautiful day in the heat.

5.5 hour walk / Elevation : +650m ; - 650m

Day 5

FONTOUSE PASS

Departing from Arvieux, this little valley will fill lovers of virgin spaces with happiness. The route, at the start a little steep, becomes softer and widens little by little to offer a beautiful panorama. In this wild valley, you may come across a mouflon or chamois numbed by the harshness of winter.

4.5 hour walk / elevation : +/- 750 m

Day 6

MINI RAID AT REFUGE DE LA BLANCHE

Departure for a 2-day trek in the high mountains, in complete safety, in a comfortable refuge at the foot of the Italian border. From Aigue Agnel, easy climb up to the high peaks on the border with Italy. In the middle of the great outdoors, towards a mountain refuge wedged at the foot of the Tête des Toilies. The Longet pass, at an altitude of over 2,700 m, a crossing point between Aigue Blanche and Aigue Agnel offers a great panorama of the two valleys.

Night at Refuge de la Blanche, without luggages transfer

6.5 hour walk / Elevation : +800m ; - 400 m

Day 7

SAINT-VÉРАН

Early departure for the emblematic village of Queyras: Saint-Véran. An easy descent in this wide sunny valley where you may come across a herd of chamois. Crossing the village, before taking a last picnic in this idyllic setting. A logistician will then bring your luggage to Saint-Véran so that you can take the 1 p.m. shuttle to Montdauphin-Guillestre station (for those returning by train). If you came by car, we will take you back to Prats-Hauts.

The guide and the agency can decide at any time to modify or interrupt the circuit or certain stages for reasons of safety or availability, in particular for the night in a refuge.
