

SNOWSHOEING AROUND MORZINE

Morzine in his winter suit

Morzine, the Portes du Soleil ... Surrounded by valleys and virgin peaks that winter dresses in a wild and secret coat, and that only the practice of snowshoeing makes accessible. It's up to us, the page is blank and we reinvent the path as we wish. Wide snow-capped mountain pastures, exceptional panoramas on Mont-Blanc, discovery of the fauna, toboggan-style descents... There's always something going on! The days end in the lively resort of Morzine, in a friendly and family hotel

The route

Day 1

Meet Sunday at 6:00pm at your accommodation for a briefing with your mountain leader.

Snowshoeing in the Alps depends a lot on the weather and the snow conditions, especially considering the avalanche risk. This program can be changed during the week if the conditions demand it, for a matter of safety. The mountain leader makes the final decision about every hike and gives a briefing with the group every evening to present the next day's program. Walking times and elevations given here are approximate, the guide will adjust the pace and the hikes depending on the group and on the whether conditions.

Day 2

LE PLATEAU DE LOEX

Departure from the hamlet of Sincerneret. A slightly difficult and wild route through woods and meadows to the viewpoint of Lairon, offering a superb panorama of the Mont Blanc, the Fiz mountain range and the Dents Blanches. Stop in Les Gets on the way back.

4 hour walk / Elevation: +/-350m

Day 3

VALLEE DE LA MANCHE AND LAKE MINES D'OR

From the Vallée de la Manche, loop walk to the Chalet des Mines d'Or and the Terres Maudites valley. Possible climb to the Col de Coux, france-swiss border, depending on the fitness level of the group. Chamois spotting. Way back to Morzine and little break in the resort.

4 to 6 hour walk / Elevation: +/-400m

+/- 750m elevation for col de Coux

Day 4

ICY RIVER, WILDLIFE AND HELL'S ROCK

The walk begins with the small road that runs along the river and its icy arabesques. Climb through the valley to the Munes mountain pasture in the Roc d'Enfer reserve, territory of chamois and mouflons. According to the conditions of the day, passage of the Bolire pass and descent through the wild valley of Foron.

5 hour walk / Elevation: +/-450m

Day 5

THE COL DE LA GOLESE

Hike to the Col de la Golèse or higher to the first summit of Bostan, one of the best winter hiking routes in the region. In the background, the Dents Blanches with their limestone faces showing their high mountain look. Descend through the Chardonnière valley or through the Cuidé valley.

5 hour walk / Elevation: +/-460m (or +/-650m depending on the group)

Day 6

LE COL RATI

Depart from the Col de l'Encrenaz in the protected mountain range of the Roc d'Enfer (Devil's Rock). Climb to the Col de La Basse and onwards to the Col Rati (1923 m), with its panoramic view of the Mont Blanc range. Potential encounter with several chamois en route... return via the Char de Quais for one or two sledging style descents!

5 hour walk / Elevation: +/-490m

End point Friday around 4:00pm.
