

TOUR OF THE MONTE ROSA self-guided

At the foot of the ice giants

Located deep in the Zermatt valley, the Monte Rosa is named after the Italian Valdostan dialect "roese" meaning "ice". Nine peaks rising to an altitude of 4634m, unrolling their mantle of ice towards the 7 Swiss and Italian valleys that lead to the foot of the giant, all united by the Walser tradition.

Straddling the border between Valais, Piedmont and Valle d'Aosta, the route alternates between crossing high passes and plunging into the heart of an original Alpine culture, for 6 days of guaranteed change of scenery. Optional ascent of the Breithorn (4160 m) guided by mountain guides.

The trip

LEVEL ****

Elevation: +/-500 to 1700m average per day.

Walking time: 6 to 8 hours average per day.

Type of trek: mountain route on steep, rocky paths. Snow and névés will be present on the paths until end of June at least. You may walk on long snowy sections that can make the tour a bit more challenging. High mountain boots, gaiters and walking poles are mandatory. Be prepared!

Good physical preparation is essential if you are to enjoy these beautiful "Haute Route" stages. Practise an endurance sport regularly, such as walking, running or cycling, for 6 to 8 hours a week. Your physical preparation will make your stay easier and help you enjoy it all the more.

YOUR BACKPACK FOR THE NIGHT WITHOUT YOUR BAGGAGE

Leave independently, for 2 or 3 days or more

In the 'weight is the enemy' section, here are some tips on how to save a few hundred grams.

For example, for your toiletries: a simple plastic bag with a zip or a small plastic box to avoid accidental crushing.

- Hotel-size soap is generally enough for a week.
- A tube of toothpaste 3/4 full will do the trick
- Shaving foam: a small sample can
- A small microfibre towel
- A small bottle of shampoo
- A travel toothbrush

Pharmacy: in addition to your personal medicines, bring :

- Elastoplast or a 'second skin' self-gripping strip to protect against blisters, such as Compeed
- A small pair of scissors, thread and needle
- A small tube of sun cream and lip balm

Now all you have to do is apply this recipe to your entire bag!
